

The Journey of Not Knowing® Team Conversation Starters

The Journey of Not Knowing: How 21st Century Leaders Can Chart A Course Where There is None

If you're considering the book for your next management retreat or a conversation starter for developing your leadership teams it can be difficult to get people talking. But with starter questions to encourage deeper thinking and discussion, the book can be the beginning of great conversation around leadership and facing the ambiguity that comes with it.

1. What did you think about the Arrow team?
2. Reading the Arrow story, did you find yourself cringing at any point? When and why?
3. Did any of its characters seem familiar? Who and why?
4. Did you see yourself anywhere?
5. [After you are well warmed up] Is there any resemblance between the Arrow team and ours? If so how?
